

lecture hall (groundfloor U2/00.25)
9:00-9:15 opening remarks: C. Illies + M. Düchs 9:15-10:30 Roger Scruton: Aesthetic Education and Design
10:30-11:00 Coffee-break
U2/01.30 session A1: Christoph Baumberger	U2/01.33 session B1: Christian Illies	U2/01.36 session C1: Tom Spector C1.1 Fidel Merz: An ontological trap? Towards a phenomenological anthropology of architecture	U2/00.26 session D1: Lisa Landrum
A 1.1 Alberto Arati: The Political Unconscious of Architecture: the subject in architecture and planning	B 1.1 Andreas Grüner: The classical form - unspall!	C 1.1 Fidel Merz: An ontological trap? Towards a phenomenological anthropology of architecture	D 1.1 Ulrik Erioy: Narrative Form as an Alternative to built form
A 1.2 Pau Pedragosa: Presence or Meaning in Architecture: The debate between the philosophical anthropology of Cassirer and Heidegger for confronting two different conceptions of architecture	B 1.2 Matthias Warkus: Being the difference - new old buildings and human identity	C 1.2 Hans Teerds: Threshold Perspectives	D 1.2 Graham Owen: The Anthropology of a Smoke-Filled Room: Ethnography and the Human at OMA
A 1.3 Sandro Gorgone: Landscape, Atmosphere and Dwelling: human being on the earth	B 1.3 Vasilias Ganiatas: Bone Sperevas! Hominin enim vestigial video: On Human Making from Geometry to Architecture	C 1.3 David Garrard: 'A potential earthly immortality': Arendt and Ruskin on building forever	D 1.3 Archie Cornish: Building and Body in Spenser's house of Temperance
12:30-14:00 Lunch-break
lecture hall (groundfloor U2/00.25)
14:00-15:30 Andres Lepik: Ethics and Aesthetics - Contemporary Architecture in Search for Social Relevance.
15:30-16:15 Coffee-break

U2/01.30 session A2: Martin Düchs	U2/01.33 session B2: Christian Illies	U2/01.36 session C2: Vasilias Ganiatas	U2/00.26 session D2: Lisa Landrum
A 2.1 Marion Roussel: Toward a Post-Human Era? - Computational Architects and the Becoming of Human Beings	B 2.1 Dale Jacquette: Santanya on the human scale in philosophy and architecture	C 2.1 Cristina Dreifuss: Building as inhabiting: Progressive architecture	D 2.1 Philippe Zourgane: Jean Jacques Rousseau – Pierre Ponce and Jacques Henri Bernardin de Saint Pierre: From collecting plants to ordering the Territory
A 2.2 Tom Spector: Humanism in architecture through post-humanism and non-anthropocentrism	B 2.2 Michael Nagenborg: Things, buildings and cities: Does size matter?	C 2.2 Leonidas Koutsoumpas: Common ground - Watching Humans Experiencing Architecture	D 2.2 Rumiko Handa: Allure of the Incomplete, Imperfect, and Impairment: Designing and Appreciating 'Architecture as Nature'
A 2.3 Christoph Baumberger: Functionalism with a human face	C 2.3 Pieter Vermaas and Sara Eloy: Taming the Inhabitants! Lions: Architectural responses to the personalisation of housing
18:30-20:00 Mari Hvattum: On Durability
20:00-21:00 get together

conference hall (1st floor)
09:00 [welcome address by Nora Gomminger]
9:00-10:30 Nicholas Ray: Embodiment and Private Languages: the proper task of an articulate architecture
10:30-11:00 Coffee-break
conference hall (1st floor)	library (basement)	grotto (basement)
session A3: Christoph Baumberger A 3.1 Henry Dicks: From Anthropometric to Biomimetic Cities: The Place of the Human in "Cities like forests"	session B3: Graham Owen B 3.1 Luciana Colombo: The Human in Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's concept of authentic architecture	session C3: Tom Spector C 3.1 Emre Deminel and Gizem Kulak: Dwelling in a complete and incomplete sense
A 3.2 Thomas Dworschak: Open functions in public spaces	Kevin Berry: Equipment for Dwelling - Le Corbusier and the Human Order in Architecture	C 3.2 Gizem Güner: Architectural History of Turkey in the Liminal Space
A 3.3 Hafsa Al Omari: Human, Society, Dwelling in Muslim City	B 3.3 Stefan Koller: Modernist architecture in the image of man: Anthropology's use in Dutch Structuralism	C 3.3 Eda Balaban Varol: A Study on the Booming Architecture in Ankara with the Concept of 'Settlement' of Heidegger: Yeyiltepe Dwellings
12:30-14:00 Lunch-break
conference hall (1st floor)
14:00-15:00 Laura Konjetzky: Spaces, Structures, Changes: a musical exploration of the conferences' theme
15:00-15:45 Coffee-break

15:45-17:15 session A4: Nicholas Ray	session B4: Michael Nagenborg	session C4: Christian Illies
A 4.1 Joel Pidet: Architecture in the Metaxy	B 4.1 Daniel Morales: The Aesthetics of Humane Architecture	C 4.1 Georg Düchs: Deus homo factus est ut homo fieret Deus
A 4.2 Michael Young: Rites of way	B 4.2 Guenter Meyer: Taking a look back and down	C 4.2 Pedro Marques de Abreu + Rita Ferreira: Architecture's Persona: The Quasi Human Being of the Work of Architecture
A 4.3 Margit van Schaik: The relevance of Daniel Dennett's 'Intentional Stance' in architecture	B 4.3 Aleksandar Kostic: Aporia in architectural design	C 4.3 Gerry Adler: 'Architecture is concealed to itself': Helmuth Pelesner and his influence on twentieth-century architects'
17:30-19:00 Paul Guyer: The Architecture of Freedom: From Kant to Mies
19:30-24:00 conference dinner at Cafe Rosengarten

conference hall (1st floor)
9:00-10:30 Angelika Krebs: On Atmosphere
10:30-11:00 Coffee-break
conference hall (1st floor)	library (basement)	grotto (basement)
session A5: Nicholas Ray A 5.1 Beate Löffler: Culture, Technology, and the Parthenon - Japanese Architecture in Western Writings	session B5: B 5.2 Mathias Buß: Build Healing Art - The mental background of an effective architecture	session C5: Vasilias Ganiatas C 5.1 Michael Djordjevič: At the threshold: The First Architecture
A 5.2 Andrew Tripp: Polyclinics and Polyclitus - Or, diathesis and the architecture of health in Britain between the wars		C 5.2 Sebastian Loosen: Philosophies of dwelling & architecture's 1970's turn to the social sciences. The case of Siegfried Vlaeminck in Flanders
A 5.3 Stefano Borgo + Maria Melone: Building places and cognitive contexts: an ontological approach	B 5.3 Joachim Fischer: Architecture as Society's 'Heavy Medium of Communication': An approach between philosophical anthropology, cultural philosophy and social philosophy	C 5.3 Tomas Hrbek: Humanity and Inhumanity of Architecture in the Work of Karel Teige
12:30-14:00 Lunch-break + Coffee
conference hall (1st floor)
session A6: Graham Owen A 6.1 Ross Anderson: Dwelling between Physis and Nomos - Heidegger at Todtnauberg	session B6: Ulrik Erioy B 6.2 Frank Schmitz: Forming society: Collective spirit in 20th century theatre buildings	session C6: Martin Düchs C 6.1 Michael Pracht: Thinking architectural designing from the Other: - Responsibility is Response-Ability
A 6.2 Travis Anderson: Questioning Hyalomorphism: An Existential and Organic Approach to Architecture and Materiality	B 6.3 Joachim Fischer: Architecture as Society's 'Heavy Medium of Communication': An approach between philosophical anthropology, cultural philosophy and social philosophy	C 6.2 Mateja Kurit: The structure of modern home: on the evolution of the private and the gender in the home
A 6.3 Stefano Borgo + Maria Melone: Building places and cognitive contexts: an ontological approach		C 6.3 Marc Bonner: An Idealistic Work of Art for the Implicit Human - Analyzing Santiago Calatrava's 'ArchiSculptures' with concepts by Baudrillard and Foucault
15:30-16:30 coffee
16:30-18:00 Karsten Harries: Ut Architectura Philosophia? - Questioning the Relationship of Architecture and Philosophy
18:00-20:00 get together

daytrip: Basilica of the Fourteen Holy Helpers (Vierzehnheiligen) + Banz Abbey guided by Karsten Harries

Building Thinking: Asking: what is the right way to do Philosophy of Architecture? - a discussion with Sir Roger Scruton and Karsten Harries