

Maybrit Wächter

E-Mail: maybrit.waechter@uni-bamberg.de

Professional Experience

01.2024 - present

PhD candidate at Bamberg Graduate School of Social Sciences

- Research project: Empirical evidence on the link between monetary policy, green finance and economic inequality

01.2024 - present

Research assistant at the chair of Macroeconomics and International Finance

- Teaching at graduate level: Tutorial for empirical methods in monetary macroeconomics

Education

04.2021 – 09.2023

Master of Science in European Economic Studies

- University of Bamberg
- Thesis topic: "Revisiting the Dynamic Effects of Monetary Policy Transmission in Germany and France: Evidence from a local projection analysis"

10.2020 – 11.2022

Master of Arts in Global Studies

- Danube University Krems, Austria
- Thesis topic: "Sustainable Monetary Policy within the European Context"

10.2016 – 05.2020

Bachelor of Arts in International Relations

- Rheine-Waal University of Applied Sciences

Knowledge and Skills

Advanced knowledge in R

Good knowledge in LaTeX

Good knowledge in Wolfram Mathematica

Basic knowledge in Octave / Dynare

Languages

German: Native

English: Level C1

Spanish: Basic knowledge

Voluntary Engagement

10.2023 – present

Member of the Education and Science Workers' Union

02.2022 – present

Member of the network "Plural Economics Bamberg"

01.2022 – present

Chairperson at the board of the association European Economic Studies

07.2021 – present

Student representative at the quality control cycle European Economic Studies

Maybrit Wächter, Bamberg, September 2024
